

The Up Beat: Great ideas

Written by
Francesca Donlan
Fdonlan@news-press.com
August 8, 2011

A local law office and area businesses asked Bishop Verot Catholic High School seniors to write an essay about the founding principles of the United States. They gave the winners scholarship money.

The law office of Kevin F. Jursinski & Associates, along with the Lani Kai Island Resort, Miromar Development, and Jerry and Valerie Sauber of Naples, recently awarded $4,000 to four Bishop Verot students. The recipients are:

- Scott Carroll: The Sister Mary Patricia Jursinski Memorial Scholarship.
 - Melissa King: The Valerie Sauber Scholarship
 - Joseph Rambow: The Miromar Development Corp. Scholarship.
 - Carolina Tejera: The Lani Kai/R. Conidaris for Grace Conidaris Memorial Scholarship
-

The Law Office of Kevin F. Jursinski & Associates is also offering a similar scholarship program in conjunction with the Salvation Army. The scholarship program provides the opportunity for the youth of the Salvation Army to compete for academic scholarships. The program is currently underway with the scholarships being awarded in the fall. Sponsors for the Salvation Army Scholarship Program are needed. Please contact Kevin F. Jursinski at (239) 337-1147 or Kevin@KFJlaw.com for more information or to become a scholarship sponsor.