

Kevin F. Jursinski, P.A.

FLORIDA BAR BOARD CERTIFIED REAL ESTATE ATTORNEY

The Law Office of Kevin F. Jursinski concentrates its practice in the area of real estate and business closings as well as complex real estate and business litigation matters. Kevin F. Jursinski heads the firm and is an AV-rated attorney. He is one of the 410 (out of more than 80,000) licensed attorneys Florida who is certified by the Florida Bar as a board certified real estate attorney.

Kevin Jursinski handles the firm's real estate and business transactions and represents clients in sophisticated litigation matters. Kevin believes it is axiomatic that in order to be an effective attorney representing a client in real estate and business matters, one should be able to handle all aspects of the transaction—including effectively and successfully negotiating or litigating that same transaction in the event that the client needs such services.

Mr. Jursinski lectures on the topic of commercial leases and is a state-certified circuit court mediator and arbitrator focusing his mediation practices in the area of real estate contracts. He also serves as a court-appointed magistrate in the 20th Judicial Circuit in cases regarding real estate disputes.

In addition to this real estate business practice, Kevin has a subspecialty in the area of sports and entertainment law. He has negotiated a number of multimillion-dollar sports contracts for NFL clients. In 2006, Kevin successfully negotiated the sale of the original Heisman trophy, recognized as the most coveted individual trophy in American sports history.

Kevin Jursinski also is considered an expert and has lectured in Las Vegas on the issue of video gaming in Florida. He has successfully litigated numerous gaming issues including the two seminal cases involving current issues relating to video gaming and adult arcades in Florida.

“Our firm continues to grow, but we still maintain and dedicate ourselves to a focused and specialized area of the law that serves our real estate and business clients.”
